PICTURES ARE THE BEST IN OREGON.

State of Things in the South.

We are accustomed to rely much upon the opinions, speculations and facts, given in Forney's Press. That paper represents that the Secessionists are beginning to understand that they cannot support the war this winter. They find themselves unable to attack Washington. The fact that they have not improved their victory at Bull Run, is a confession of weakness. The army of the Union on the Potomac, they know to be one of overwhelming power. They know their coasts are to be assailed by formidable forces, and they are unable to make adequate preparation to ward off the blows. The Press of Saturday, Sept. 21st, says: Late information, upon which we can rely, authorize us to state that a general panic has taken place in the seceded States since Monday last. The preparations of the Federal Government to seize certain important posts on the Southern coast, and the unprotected character of that coast, are among the chief reasons for this rapidly increasing feeling.

Davis and the Confederated traitors having failed in their absurd demonstration upon Washington, (which was in fact never real,) are now losing the confidence of the troops gathered between Richmond and the Federal Capital, and are daily attacked with the utmost bitterness by the people they have seduced into their conspiracy. It is a fact which events will soon establish, that thousands now in the rebel army are anxious to be taken prisoners by the American army, in order that they may be rescued from the fearful horrors under which they are suffering! Nothing prevents an outburst in favor of the Union in North Carolina save the invasion of that State by the South Carolina troops; and such men as Holden and Morehead will undoubtedly speak out against the traitors the moment they feel strong enough so to do.

Every dollar of gold and silver is caught and hid away, and merchants and tradesmen only part with their goods for the paper of the Confederate Government, and of the different State authorities, because they are compelled to yield.

THE SPOIL AT GAULY BRIDGE, WESTERN VIRGINIA.—Floyd, with his rebels, fled from Roseneranz, leaving a large amount of stores. They left so precipitately that they had not time to destroy their property, nor to carry off their wounded prisoners. The Union soldiers collected the plunder, consisting in part, of 60 head of beef cattle, a large quantity of good commissary stores, much forage which had been impressed, tents, blacksmith's implements, intrenching tools, axes, muskets, rifles, bayonets, cartridges, powder, pig lead, great quantities of camp cooking utensils, canteens, John B. Floyd's hat, his trunk, his breeches, his elegant little satchel, which contained a supply of balsam copavi, lots of bibles and testaments, which appear never to have been opened; trunks filled with shirts, drawers and other wearing apparel, and particularly interesting letters from true loves, and miscellaneous females. They were all spread out in front of Camp Scott, and "the whole general camp, pioneers and all," have had a rich time in ramaging over the spoils.

RELEASE FROM ARREST.—The editor and proprietor of the Evening News at St. Louis, who were arrested for publishing an article reflecting severely on Gen. Fremont, were released after one day's confinement and allowed to resume the publication of their paper, with the understanding that no reflections upon the course of things at that point should again be made. Gen. Fremont, almost every one acknowledges, acted unwisely in this case. The act was done with the expectation that the authorship of the article in question would be traced to Frank Blair. That expectation, however, was not realized.

GEN. LANE'S OPERATIONS.—Gen. Lane's command surprised a superior force of rebels at Papinsville, Mo., on the 21st, and after a severe engagement routed them, losing seventeen killed and a large number wounded.—The rebels lost forty killed, one hundred prisoners and all their tents, wagons and supplies. Lane is reported to be moving on Osceola.

THE FISHERMAN'S FLOTILLA.—It is said that Capt. Cox is using his utmost endeavors to procure the aid of Government in fitting out 300 of the largest and best of the fishing smacks and schooners lately offered by the fishermen of New England, in order that they may be used in protecting our commerce in Southern waters, and in capturing the privateers. It is supposed that a rifled canon can be put on board each of them at a cost, including carriage and ammunication, not exceeding $1,000, and that the cost of other fitting up necessary will not exceed another $1,000.

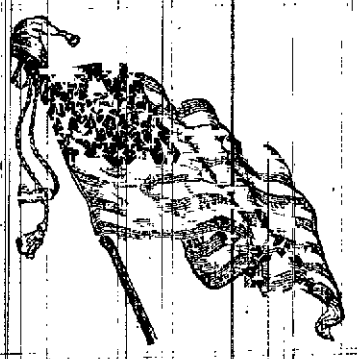
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken around true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave!
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT 24, 1861.

Democratic Advice to "Peace Men."

Ye "Peace Men," who seek peace by which you can destroy your government, and yield to all the demands of the Southern rebels, listen to what Ex-Senator Dickinson of New York says to you!

"You, gentlemen, who are quivering in your shoes, whoever you are—you peace men, fly from the Sodom and Gomorrah of treason while you have a chance. Fly! The storm of popular fury is a good deal nearer than you imagine, and the fire and brimstone that will be sent upon you are not far in the distance. They are almost up with you. Don't stand there faltering. The day of peace propositions is over. It is treason now. You are marked out as an object of scorn. You can no longer be a friend of the Union with a dagger aimed at its vitals. You cannot be in favor of sustaining that Union and at the same time throwing querulous objections in the face of the administration, besieged with every difficulty. If you don't mean to aid the government, shoulder the musket and go into the opposition ranks. Start off: we will give you a good riddance, and play 'you but to the Rogue's March. You can't be upon both sides, in favor of the Union and against it, in favor of prosecuting the war and against the Administration in every demonstration that they can make. No! the great ball is opened. Choose your partner and take your position on the floor, and we will see whether you can keep time to the music of the Union or not."

The Advertiser, in the kindness of its soul, grieves over "Suffering in the East." He instances a child dying in its mother's arms of starvation in New York. It may be so. "The New York papers" say so, and the kind-hearted Advertiser says it was the child of a volunteer. We are glad to see the Advertiser man weep. A free flow of tears will be good for the soul. We beg of him to extend his vision a little further, if he possibly can, than this little child. Let him pass his eyes over that land which has his sympathies, and see how many children have suffered by the brutal murder of parents by his friends. There he will find a vast field for his sympathies. The Rev. Mr. Bewley, who was hung by his friends for the crime of being a Northern man, left some helpless children, and one daughter, who was blind. The Advertiser will be kind enough to extend his sympathies in the direction of Mr. Bewley's family. We trust their friends will not let them starve. We are sure if there was any danger of this the Advertiser would open his full pockets for their relief. We are beginning to think there is a little of the milk of human kindness left in the heart of our neighbor, and that he will not pray any more for the success of the southern hangmen.

The Advertiser publishes a handsome eulogy on the Liberty of the Press by Col. Baker. We agree with every word of it, and Col. Baker would not take a word of it back. We know of no one who is not in favor of the freedom of the press for all legitimate purposes. But we do not believe that the press should be allowed to publish treason in our midst in time of war; we do not believe it should be permitted to publish blasphemy; neither do we believe it should publish lascivious matters to debauch the people. In our view such freedom of the press does not accord with the provisions of our constitution—whatever may be the opinion which the Advertiser holds on the subject.

The Washington County Agricultural Fair pleased every body present. There was a good exhibition of stock, and other articles. It paid—and left some money in the treasury. Washington County can boast of some of the best farmers of our State.

AN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FROM G. D. PRENTICE.—The following letter was received by John R. Foster, Esq., of this city, acknowledging the receipt of a list of subscribers to that spirited Union paper, the Louisville Journal, accompanied with the subscription money:

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 18, 1861.

My Dear Sir:—Your favor of the 15th of August is received. I give many, very many thanks, for your great kindness. It is exceedingly gratifying to me to receive so large a list of subscribers from a place so remote as Portland. It is a highly prized verdict in favor of my exertions. These exertions shall be continued and redoubled.

Truly your friend, GEO. D. PRENTICE.

The Advertiser does not believe that a petition has been circulated in Olympia to stop the circulation of that treasonable sheet by the Postmaster of that town. We learn the fact from other sources than the letter of our correspondent. The gentleman who leads the paper with his name has been a distinguished federal officer.

A measure which now receives the unmeasured condemnation of the Advertiser, was one very popular with himself and his party, and was sanctioned by the administration he so much admires—that of James Buchanan. No Northern papers were allowed to be circulated in the Southern States, the character of which was not approved by Postmasters there. The Oregonian was sent back to us from Mississippi, the Postmaster refusing to deliver it to our subscriber.

We do not believe our Postmasters would be hardly dealt with if they should refuse to deliver treasonable papers. We advise our contemporary to pray no more to "Gal" for the destruction of our government through the medium of his paper.

The Times tells us that the secessionists of Sauvies Island say that the flag of the Union shall not be raised there. In case the circulation of the Advertiser should be stopped at Olympia, the editor would find a congenial place for the circulation of his treasonable sheet on that locality of Sauvies Island.

The Advertiser has original views of the Freedom of the Press. He thinks that his newspaper is a common sewer, in which traitors can defend treason or any other doctrine or thing at war against the government that protects it, whether it be war against patriotism, religions or morals—and the editor is not responsible. We guess that the editor is now learning to his sorrow that the judgment of the public does not accord with his own.

The Advertiser asks itself—"Whither are we tending?" If our opinion would be kindly received, we would just answer—"To an election where there is no ground to stand on."

PRINCE NAPOLEON.—This Prince is the son of Jerome Bonaparte—not by his first wife, who was Miss Patterson—and was the heir apparent to the throne of France until the birth of the Emperor's son. He thus writes of the affairs of the United States:

"THE CRISIS.—I do not doubt that the present crisis, which exposes the wounds of Government, its impotence, its incapacity, and its thorough unpopularity, will be the beginning of a salutary and regenerative reaction. I do not pretend to predict the new political form under which America will pursue the career of her destinies; but this people has a vitality too great, a practical sense too powerful, resources too vast for us to fear that she will not profit wisely from the experience of the past; and that, like the extinct races, she will not be immovable in her errors, nor, to avoid them, throw herself into the opposite extreme.

The crisis will pass; the elements of vitality which America bears within her will give her strength to surmount it. Soon you will see this country greater, more full of the future than ever."

PEACE DEMOCRATS.—Amos Kendall, Gen. Jackson's Post Master General, thus speaks of these fishy democrats:

"Democrats! No, they are no Democrats. The shades of Jefferson and Jackson disown them. They mistake their proper names and their true homes. They are the white slaves of King Cotton, and their true home is in his presence. Let them go the other States and flaunt their peace flag in presence of their king. Let them get up a peace party Convention, who are willing to be in peace under any circumstances, and they will then be responsible only to all true democrats of the north."

THE NEW YORK FREEMAN.—This distinguished Catholic paper says: "We deem it the duty of every good citizen, to Abstain from politics, what they may, to stand by the administration of the country in defence of the Union. In matters not in us what political party hold the reins, the Tablet is committed to no party in the State, and speaks for none; but it will ever support the government of the United States, without regard to the name of the chief magistrate, or the peculiar shade of his politics."

BY TELEGRAPH!

Special Dispatch to the Oregonian.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

WASHINGTON DATES TO OCTOBER 11.

Progress of the Great Rebellion.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 19, 1861.

The following is additional to yesterday's overland mail:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9th.—The Tribune's correspondence says by the occupation of Lewisville, Gen. Prentiss has complete possession of the line of high ground north and south from the river, from Great Falls. This second line, which is about two miles from the first, is more properly one of operation than defence.

We now threaten the communication of the rebel army on the Upper Potomac, while a slight advance will entirely cut them off.

Recent investigations show there are real, and have never been, rebel fortifications on the Potomac at any other place than Aquia Creek.

There are three batteries, of twenty guns, which are designed to defend the terminus of the new Southern Railroad, protect Richmond and Fredericksburg, and not to hinder navigation.

The guns at Freestone Point, which, a fort night since, fired upon our vessels, causing fear that the navigation was stopped, was a field battery, on its way South.

Vessels can pass three miles beyond the Aquia batteries, which cannot harm them.

The Herald's dispatch says, while the river continues open at its present height there is no possibility of an attack on our lines, or an advance from the rebels.

The news from Kentucky is cheering. John J. Crittenden, in spite of his advanced age, is the first private in the Frankfort Home Guards, and has declared his intention to go into camp and remain in service until every rebel is driven from the soil of Kentucky. There is no doubt that Crittenden will be offered the position of Brigadier General of volunteers.

The Times dispatch says accounts received by the Government and which are deemed reliable, represent the crop of the Southern States as about the average yield. Much of it has been successfully housed owing to the want of labor. It could not be baled for transportation, until a supply of wrapping can be obtained. The corn is deemed almost useless, being too bulky for shipment.

Our Consul General to Egypt (Thayer,) writes home that the British Government, is making extraordinary exertion to procure supplies from and through Egypt.

A new commercial treaty has lately been negotiated between the Egyptian and British Governments which gives the latter additional facilities in exporting the staples. Thayer at once required that the same provisions should be granted to the government of the U. S., and his request was immediately granted.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 19th.—The convention met at 11 a. m. and continued till 3 p. m. Only 34 members were present, and were not sufficient for a quorum.

A special dispatch to the St. Louis Republican this afternoon says Gen. Price is said to have 30,000 troops. That McCullough with 25,000 men and 18 cannon were within one day's march of Price, and that the two armies in conjunction, will make a stand for Fremont's army. Gen. Fremont's future movements are forbidden to be sent by telegraph.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 19th.—Secretary Cameron and Adjutant General Thomas, arrived this afternoon. It is understood they come on business connected with the department of the west, and will remain several days.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20th.—The Times dispatch dated Washington, Oct. 6th, says Commander Chary arrived here this morning from Hatteras Inlet. He reports that on Monday the rebels formed an expedition to attack and recapture the Forts occupied by our forces. The expedition consisted of six steam boats and about 3000 men. The steamers were armed with rifled cannon and mortars for throwing shells, and were assisted by vessels lying off the Inlet. The rebels retreated though not before two or three steamers had been sunk, going down with all on board. Judging from the crowded appearance of the vessels it is estimated that about 500 men were drowned besides a large loss which they must have sustained by the bursting of our shells and plunging four shots as they were served in a most masterly manner.

CAIRO, Oct. 8th.—Pickets of the 4th cavalry regiments, stationed four miles from Paducah, were attacked by a large body of rebels this morning. Two were mortally wounded and six taken prisoners, with their horses and equipments. The enemy's loss is reported as very great. They fired upon a flag of truce, and a party, taking the other for a decoy,

[illegible] arrived here yesterday, and reported [illegible]

CITY.

A FOUNDLING.—Yesterday morning, about three o'clock, a woman, closely veiled, and well muffled in heavy shawls, awakened several citizens in the neighborhood of Seventh street, imploring them to receive an infant child under their protection—holding the little innocent in her arms. She said that she was its mother, but was unable to support herself and child; that on an unfortunate quarrel with her husband (the same old story) they had parted for ever. The poor woman was unsuccessful in her endeavors to find a protector for the babe—that vicinity being liberally supplied—and as a last resort, she was compelled to leave the youngster on a door-step; and that door-step happened to be Mayor Brink's. His Honor, on going out early in the morning to get his accustomed daily paper, discovered the little waif, nearly perishing from cold and the want of proper nourishment. It was given in the charge of Mr. A. Miller, temporarily, until its mother could be found or a home provided. Mr. Kenaig, proprietor of the New York Hotel, was the first person who applied to Mr. Miller for possession of the child, promising to apply to the County Court for permission to adopt it as his own offspring. He took it home to his wife, who immediately made arrangements to supply all its wants; but late in the afternoon they were doomed to disappointment. An order came from the County Judge to turn the babe over to Mrs. Wright, who seemed well pleased with the charge, and agreed to look upon and treat it as her own. As it is a male child, it may live to be a great soldier. Who knows? Its real mother has not made her appearance, and perhaps never will.

AGROUND.—The steamer Pacific was aground yesterday evening, on Swan Island bar.

BY THE JULIA.—The Julia, last evening, brought news fully corroborating the news of the great gold discoveries on Salmon River. Our correspondent, T. H. Mallory, has a claim which yields $30 a day to the hand.

An express reached the Dalles on Friday last, that a band of Snake Indians had appeared at the Warm Springs Reservation and run off fifty horses. A requisition was made on Capt. Whittlesey for troops to pursue them, but under the orders of Gen. Sumner he was unable to comply, and the pursuit of the Indians was abandoned.

ARRIVED.—The Bark Industry, Corno, Master, arrived at this port yesterday from San Francisco. The following are the Consignees:

Burgren & Schindler, 82 packages; Wm. Ellis, 31; Knapp, Burrell & Co., 6; Allen & Lewis, 154; Westal, 500; Harker Bros., 75; Kohn, 26; Ladd, Reed & Co., 381; A. Cain & Co., 677; Smith & Davis, 78; Trenchard & Hurst, 84; R. C. & Co., 100; Van Dusen & Brown, 92; E. R. & Co., 10; B. R. Wilson, 20; M. Mansfield, 39; Johnson & Paine, 1; Seymour & Joynt, 7; E. Millman, 10; John Wilson, 93; total, 3,332 packages.

EXPORTS TO VICTORIA.—The steamer Pacific sailed yesterday morning and took the following freight: 2,800 sacks flour, 500 boxes apples, 18 bbls. butter, 36 kegs butter, 150 sacks meal, 24 cans lard, 10 packages eggs, 1 coop chickens.

PER ELLA FLORENCE, FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—3000 boxes apples and 45,000 feet lumber.

We have seen several big chunks of gold lately at Robbins' Assay Office. One of them weighed a hundred ounces. The Assayer seems to be doing a good business.

We had the first frost of the season in Portland, on Sunday night. It was very light.

RUMOR ADVANCE UPON KENTUCKY.—A letter from Louisville says, that when it was announced that the Right Reverend Bishop Hendrick was advancing with his confederate forces, there was a general outpouring of Kentucky's sons. There was evidence that it would require a heavier rebel force to conquer Kentucky than to conquer Washington.

For San Francisco!

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. J. J. ZAPKAY is hereby secured in a position which places it in advance of practice in almost the assumptions, ignorance and pretension of the schools of France, the best physicians and most celebrated practitioners in the different states of Europe and their system with them, is also fully represented in the production. Recently in the illustrious examination shining light among the philosophical sages of learning in Europe and Dr. Czapkay has taken a degree in this country, as a proof of which the Philadelphia Medical College conferred him with a Diploma, and the honorary of membership. Selecting this as his field of labor, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth and Honorary Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary Army. For more extended labors Dr. J. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portraits and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's office are at the Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We seek particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of responsible names in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in correspondence, please enclose $10 in their letters and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, J. J. CZAPKAY, M. NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®
NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

From Washington.—A letter says: "The steady aggregation of troops from the North-western States goes on, but it has received a tremendous accelerating impulse in the last three or four days. I am literally afraid to state how many regiments have got in since last Sunday, lest the statement, in the first place, should not be believed, and in the second place should lay this correspondence liable to an unfounded charge of lending aid and comfort to the enemy—though what circumstance could render the said enemy more discomfort than the intelligence of the overwhelming quantity of soldiers which are being added to the army of the Potomac, it would be hard to imagine. A grand scheme is on foot, but it is to be hoped that the nature of it will not be prematurely dabbled by military men, as the speculation of the correspondents, if the officers of the army would only keep their counsel, would only go for nothing.

Fremont's Defence.—The St. Louis Democrat, of Oct. 4th, in an article showing why Gen. Lyon was not reinforced, states the entire force under Gen. Fremont on the 7th of August, including Lyon's command of 4,000, was 19,415, of which 12,550 were three months' men, whose term of enlistment was just expiring, leaving an actual force of 6,753 in the entire department. Of these, Lyon had 2,320 men; the balance, 4,430, being the total strength of Fremont's available force at the time. Cairo, Bird Point, and Paducah, were menaced by accumulating rebel forces, and the President ordered Fremont to take all his available troops and reinforce these points, for which service there were only 4,116 men, including upwards of 900 St. Louis Home Guards. The terminus of the South Branch of the Pacific Railroad at this time was the depot of a very large and valuable quantity of army stores and munitions, and was protected by the Fifth Missouri Regiment, Col. Stevens, and the Thirteenth Illinois, Col. Wyman; the former of which was ordered to Springfield, but for want of transportation it could not move. The article also shows a disturbance throughout the State on account of the constantly disbanding of three months' men, and says, after the battle, Fremont was thoroughly exhonorated from blame by the very men who are now the loudest in condemning him.

Of all diseases the first great cause, Springs from neglect or Nature's laws

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not what seems a simple complaint to fix itself in all stages of secret disease—Self-Abuse, Seminal Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Stricture, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Tetter, Nodes and Blotches upon the Body or Limbs, Diseases of the Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Chancres, Buboes, Eruptions, Pile, St. Vitus' Dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs. Involuntary Nocturnal Emissions, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Bashfulness, Nervousness, Trembling, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Pemples, Blotches, Scrofulous and all impurities or discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than any other physician can be effected by any other treatment. Even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their mineral cures. The medicines prescribed by Dr. C. are entirely vegetable, containing no mercury, nor anything injurious to the constitution, and differing entirely from those of any other physician. Many cases of pretenders to Europe, the Atlantic States and California, have resorted from the want of knowledge of the parties, who, in the last stages of the above-named diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, should not hesitate in consulting Dr. C. at once, as he guarantees a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest curse to humanity, as they sap the very foundation of life, and entail upon the innocent many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family.

A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected by the use of mercury, as it only drives the disease from the surface, but does not cure it, filling the system with mercury, which, with the blood, becomes tainted, and ends in a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and they run out into the system, it is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by the virus which betrays itself

Remarkable Instance of Medical Skill.

In how we publish the certificates of three of the most from the pangs of disease, who, having regained their health, and impelled by gratitude, call for their cases and remedial agent and their signatures authenticated by a Notary Public. The desire to ingenuously conceal their publicity, and we more their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.
